

Search ...

HOME ABOUT EVENTS INSIGHT CONTACT

PAST EVENTS

NEW NATIONAL STRATEGY TO REDUCE GAMBLING RELATED HARMS

The Gambling Commission has published the new National Strategy to Reduce Gambling Related Harms. This three-year strategy aims to drive and coordinate work to bring a lasting impact on reducing gambling harms. No doubt this will prove to be a major focus of discussion at our Player Protection event in May.

Player Protection Forum
May 22, 2019

Player Protection Workshop
May 23, 2019

presented by:

Conference partners:

STAY IN THE KNOW

Register with KnowNow and we'll keep you updated on the latest news, insights and exclusive member discounts.

Name

Email

Company

Our chair for the Player Protection Forum, David Clifton, has published some invaluable insights into the new national strategy on the Clifton Davies Consultancy Limited website.

Reducing Gambling Related Harms.

The Gambling Commission has also launched a new website – www.reducinggamblingharms.org – where all information on the priorities identified in the new strategy can be accessed and progress tracked. The website carries the headline message:

“The sole aim of this three-year National Strategy is to move faster and go further to reduce gambling harms. A wide range of partners will need to play their part.”

Visit the Clifton Davies website to read the blog in full.

Major Operators lead change of direction on Betting Advertising.

Telephone

Terms & Conditions

Agree

Subscribe

On the same day that the Gambling Commission published the new National Strategy to Reduce Gambling Harms, GVC Holdings PLC – the global sports-betting and gaming group and owner of Ladbrokes and Coral – called for an end to all UK sports-betting broadcast advertising, at any time of the day, on live and repeated sporting events (with the exception of horse racing). Read more here.

Player Protection Forum and Workshop.

Tickets are available here. With speakers confirmed from leading operators, associations and charities this promises to be a lively and informative event. You can view the full agenda here.

Compliance	Gambling
Social responsibility

Tweets by @KnowNow_Ltd

 KnowNow Ltd
@KnowNow_Ltd

Following the publication of the new National Strategy to Reduce Gambling Related Harms here's David Clifton - our chair for the Player Protection Forum -with some further insights. #KNEvents #gamblingrelatedharmsbit.ly/DCGRH

♡ ↗ 2h

 KnowNow Ltd
Retweeted

 AML Global Solutions
@AmlgsLtd

With the release of the UKGC strategy for harm minimisation, this is a great opportunity to hear more

Embed View on Twitter